

The True Story Of The Little Unicorn

Once in unicorn land, Mummy unicorn had a baby and she called her Little Unicorn. One day Little Unicorn was playing on Mum's phone.

Then a message popped up.
She was playing on Roblox so someone had messaged and it said "you're a stinky rotten egg, HA, HA, HA".

Then Little Unicorn was upset.
Little Unicorn didn't know what to do.
More nasty messages came.
Little Unicorn didn't tell her Mummy straight away.

Sometime later she realised it would be best to speak to her
Mummy about the messages.

Mummy wrote a message back saying "it's not kind to say nasty things".
When Daddy got home he looked at Roblox and changed the settings.

Now Little Unicorn could play safely.

Now Little Unicorn can play on Roblox safely without the worry of being bullied online.

Be safe kids!
